“ I met Al in 1956 when we started Junior High school and our friendship continued throughout the three years at Weehawken high school. We had a good group and I remember most of our group - Al, Siggy Binder, John Hogan, Peter Vandenberg, John (and his brother Marc) Melis and a few other classmates. We always had a great time getting together before class; having lunch outdoors along Boulevard East and “hanging out” at Hamilton Plaza in Weehawken. Our friendship continued after we graduated and we would occasionally get together to reminisce about our high school years. One event remains in my mind. It was during our senior year. One day, our principal, George Becker, turned on the school intercom around 1 PM and announced “Would William Klieber, William Kleiber and Alfred Keller report to my office.” It turned out to be nothing. BUT whenever I saw Al I would look at him and say “Klieber, Kleiber, Kluber Keller.” I did not see Al for a number of years, but when Siggy, Al, Peter and I got together back in 2022, I looked at Al and the first thing I said was Klieber, Kleiber, Kluber, Keller and he laughed.

Rest in Peace my old friend
