“ Too many memories to recount but the ones that stand out for me... for one he was my Godfather and I still remember the Juicer he gave me one Christmas.. must've been around 7 or 8 years old back then! I remember laying on his back while sleigh riding down the hill next to my grandmother's house is Paterson... fun times! But most of all his laugh!! RIP Uncle Al!! Say Hi to everyone up there from all off us down here!! Love You!!

Our memories go way back. Sister Anita and I worked together and I was then introduced to her brother Al and his wife Betty. At that time Cheryl was about 3 and Glenn maybe a year old. Our further connection was that Al's parents were friends of my step grandmother Jennie Poulain. Also that my step dad Andre Jousse once was to have saved Anita from drowning when she was about age 7. Over the years we had lost touch but seeing this obit has brought back a flood of memories.

Our sincere condolences to the family and may Al rest In peace.
