“ I am saddened and shocked to hear of Amy's passing. Amy started working with me right after finishing her dental assistant training at 18. We worked together for over 20 years. She was the one of the best assistants I ever worked with. She set the standard I judge every one else.by. Non have been as wonderful as she.

“ Words cannot express our loss of Amy. She was a rock. She was a totally devoted mother to her daughter Olivia, a caring and loving companion to Joe, and a total blessing for her family and friends. We will always remember the good times we shared on so many occasions through out the years. We admired her strength, her caring ways, her devotion to her family and friends, and her great sense of humor. Our heart felt condolences to Olivia, Joe, and the entire Snouffer family. She will forever live in our hearts through the memories we cherish and will never be forgotten.
