“ Our deepest condolences to Uncle Angelo's beloved wife (my aunt ) Ofelia, his three sons (my cousins) Gary, Alan and Ray and all of their families. I still have vivid memories when I was a child living in Englewood seeing Uncle Angelo in action he was somebody you didn't want to mess with....he was also a very honorable, very hard working man and had a sense of humor. When he and the family moved to West Milford I was amazed by all the work he did outside around the house moving big boulders around the pond without the use of any machines he was definitely a workhorse. R.I.P. Uncle Angelo.

Love
