“ Barbara was my manager at Oritani bank. From the minute I met her we became more than just coworkers, but she was a true friend. I learned a lot from Barbara, not only in the banking world, but life’s general struggles. Barbara always was one to want to help and never turned anyone away. She was an amazing woman and someone to look up to. It was fun to listen to her conversations when Cherryann was in high school And many of the times, as my son grew older, I would think back on those conversations and how she would deal with certain things. Barbara will be missed a lot. She was a beautiful soul.

“ Friends since 1979 - Cheriann & my daughter grew up together - we lived in Hillsdale & Barbara in Washington Twsp. We spent many days at the pool together. We stayed in touch over the years as the girls grew up and Barbara moved. So grateful that we got to spend time together this summer at BBQ's in Hillsdale. Such an unforeseen loss. My deepest condolences to the family and my memories will last forever.
