She was born on October 23, 1939 in Jersey City, NJ to the late Sophie (Ciesmalewski) and the late Flavio Chiarieri.

Beverly married Anthony Quail in 1961 and made their home in Jersey City, NJ., later moving to Pompton Lakes, NJ and finally residing in Vernon, NJ. She worked for many years as a BSI and ESL Teacher's Aide at the middle school and high school in Pompton Lakes, NJ.

Beverly will best be remembered with embracing everyone with warmth and love. She made sure you knew you were special. She never forgot a birthday, anniversary, or special occasion. Our greatest gift from Beverly is showing us how to tend to our own beautiful garden of life and to enjoy it to the fullest.

My best friend in Pompton Lakes, we met in 1967, and spent so much time together raising our kids, playing Canasta and shopping. Beverly was a dear, sweet and generous friend. I loved her from day one and we never ceased having something to talk about. I will always keep her memory in my heart.
