Charles K. Wetherill, 79, of Oak Ridge, New Jersey, passed away peacefully in his sleep on Friday, January 7, 2022, at Complete Care at Barn Hill in Newton.

Charles was born February 11, 1942, in Kearny, New Jersey to Katherine (Kindleberger) and William Henry Wetherill. He married Virginia (Ginny) Kiefer in 1964 and together they raised their family in Lake Intervale.

Known as Charlie to those who loved him, he graduated and obtained his master's degree from Wagner College. For many years, he worked as a CPA/comptroller for Research Cottrell in Bedminster and their subsidiaries. During this time there, he traveled and worked in Louisiana, Massachusetts, and Puerto Rico. After retirement, he drove a school bus in Jefferson Township as he was devoted to children.

Over the years, Charlie coached little league, was a Deacon in church and was a board member on the Lake Intervale Management Association. He also was a Seeing Eye puppy raiser and a therapy dog handler. Charlie was a member of both the Oak Ridge Presbyterian Church and the Venice Presbyterian Church.

He loved splitting his time between New Jersey and Venice, Florida. His passion was golfing. He was an avid reader, lover of crossword puzzles and the TV show Jeopardy! He enjoyed gardening, his daily walks, and most of all, his family.

Charlie was known as a kind, humble, generous man and was a true gentleman.

His wife, Ginny, and parents Katherine and William predeceased him. He is survived by his brother Bill, his sisters Liz and Barbara. His brother Robert and John predeceased him.

He is survived by his three devoted daughters and son: Jennifer Kraljevich and her husband Mark, Jill Folz and her husband Jim, Krista Schellinck and her husband Chad, and Ken Wetherill and his wife Ayano.

He was the proud grandfather (PopPop) of Sara and her husband Jeremy, Kyle and his wife Kellie, Connor, Erika, Arisa, Nikki, Julia, Jacqueline and her husband Oleg and William.

He adored his great grandson and namesake Charlie.

“ Charlie and I moved to the Fairways within weeks of each other and we became friends shortly after his wife passed away. My wife is a survivor of two bouts with cancer and so I had some understanding of what he had gone through. We also connected through his dog "Roper " in several ways. I had one that could have been Roper's twin that had passed. I also had a close friend whose name was Don Roper and ironically he was in the Wagner College Football Hall of fame and he passed away around the time Charlie moved to the Fairways. These similarities hooked us up and we played golf as often as Charlie was up to it. Each one of my golfing buddies that met Charlie loved his dry sense of humor and always asked can you get him to play with us again? As you know he could not play that much in the recent past due to health issues. Being 85 now I have lost so many long term friends but I am thankful that Charlie became a "new friend". Charlie's family and friends know they were blessed to have him in their lives. God Bless You Charlie!
