STICKLE-SOLTESZ FUNERAL HOME

PRIVATE FINAL DISPOSITION

Christian "Fred" Hancock Sr., 70 years of age, of West Milford, NJ., died on November 12th, 2020 in Morristown Memorial Hospital due to complications following a major surgery.

He was born on June 9th, 1950 in Paterson N.J. Graduated from Kinnelon High School in 1968. On October 3rd, 1982 he married his loving wife and High School sweetheart Terri A. Mansfield.

Christian was a natural born business and salesman who found his passion and calling in the organic textile industry in which he owned and operated his own business "Specialty Fabrics" for the last 30+ years. He also worked with his son Jamie in the "Theatrical Teamsters union Local 817" in which he was a prided on-call helper.

He never took life too seriously and always found a joke in every situation.

Anyone who knew Christian, knew his sense of humor is what defined him and could always count on him to make them laugh and make light, any situation.

Christian is survived by his loving wife Terri A. Hancock; his four children: his daughter Amy E. Antonucci, and her fiancé Dean Monti, his three sons Christian Hancock Jr. and his girlfriend Dawn M., Corey R. Ceccacci and his wife Heather, and Jamie A. Ceccacci; his grandchildren: Madelyn Antonucci, Andrea Bailey and soon to be grandson “baby Monti”; his brother Knute Hancock and his wife Shirley, his brother-in-law James Mansfield and his wife Suzie; and his nieces: Sandy Spinelli, Sonya Sedlack, and Kate and Stacy Mansfield.

The family received visitors on Tuesday, November 17, 2020 from 4pm to 7pm at the Stickle-Soltesz Funeral Home, 187 La Rue Road, Newfoundland, NJ 07435.

Final disposition will be private.
