“ Dear Chris's family and friends,
Chris was the sunshine and heart of our office.
She had the ability to make everyone smile, laugh and just enjoy life.
I was lucky enough to have known Chris before she came to our office and I will always treasure all of the time we were able to share together.
She will be missed in our daily lives, but she will never be forgotten!

“ From the day we first met when you brought Alex to preschool...you brought giggles and sunshine into our school and to the staff. Still, years later, running into you at the A&P or in town at a function you were volunteering at...giggles! We miss you Chris! Thank you for touching our lives. Deepest thoughts and prayers to your family.

“ Robin, Please accept our sincerest condolences. We were shocked and saddened to hear about Chris' passing. We remember very well the weekend we all spent at Ken's parents' place in the Poconos several years back; Chris barely knew us but made us feel welcome none the less. We had such a good time.
There are no words that could possibly give you any comfort right now, but please know you and your family are in our thoughts.
Praying that you, your parents, Ken and your nephews find strength in your memories...

“ Christine could make me smile and laugh 'til I cried! Such fond memories from our days at Medi-Physics and Checkers! "Highway to Hell" and "Dirty Deeds Done Dirt Cheap" always bring me back to her wonderful sense of humor! Optimism and strength were also part of her charisma, which will be sadly missed.
May loving, happy memories filled with her effervescence remain close to the hearts of those who loved and knew her.
Rest in peace, Chris. Only the good die young!
