“ This woman was the best passenger I ever had on the back of my bike. She could ride for 10 hours and still want more. Whether it be from NYC to Niagra Falls or Bennetfield to Shanksville PA, from rain and hurricane to even snow once, she was up for anything and never complained. She was the only person who could ever arrive at a place wearing a completely different outfit than when we started and I would never even know she changed on the bike along the way.
