“ I want to share this now in case I cannot attend the service this afternoon. I knew all the sisters growing up in White Rock Lake. It was a time of youth and friends. Over time I lost contact but found Denise on Facebook and we stayed in touch that way for about 6 years. I loved all her pictures of the twins her grandsons, when they were born to now and all of her family. She has a love of life and beautiful hope for everything. I'm thankful to have known her she is already greatly missed. Thank you 💖 Denise.

My deepest condolences to Denise's family. I was blessed to spend only a small amount of time with Denise when she visited Nikki here in Washington State one time and she was a delightful, beautiful soul! I am so glad I had that opportunity. I am so very sorry for your loss. May God give you His peace which passes all understanding at this difficult time! Rest in Pearce Denise
