November 11, 1929 - January 4, 2014

She was a member of the Women’s American Legion Auxiliary and a valued parishioner of The United Methodist Church at Newfoundland where she served on its executive board for many years.

Dolores will best be remembered for being a faithful housewife, devoted mom, and consummate educator.

Mrs. Pollard was predeceased by her grandson William.

Mrs. Pollard is survived by her sons Laurence F. Pollard and his wife Jean of Stockholm, NJ, Harold C. Pollard of Oregon, and her daughter Colleen B.

Loller, her grandson Robert Loller and his wife Alexis of Sussex, NJ and her sisters, Carol Auer of Cedar Crest, Myrna Tarrant and her husband Jim of Falls Church, VA.

“ I was very sorry to learn of Dolores passing. She was a wonderful neighbor and caring person. Even to the end she had a smile for me when I came over to visit. I'm glad to have gotten to know her though the years. My deepest regrets to her sons, daughter in law, daughter and family. You were blessed to have such a lovely lady.
