

DONALD CHARLES DeVANE

November 29, 1942 - July 19, 2014

Donald Charles DeVane, 71, of Oak Ridge, passed away on Saturday, July 19, 2014.

He was born on November 29, 1942 in Jersey City, NJ to the late Dorothy C. (nee Neuschwanter) and the late Donald B. DeVane.

Donald proudly served his country in the US Army as a Sergeant during the Vietnam War from 1966 to 1972 during which he was a Tank Commander.

He was employed for many years as an iron worker with Local 45 in Jersey City, NJ.

Donald was a dedicated member of the American Legion Post 423 in the Milton section of Jefferson Township.

He will best be remembered as an avid outdoorsman, especially hunting, hiking, fishing, and any outdoor photography.

Donald is survived by his beloved children Donna DeVane of Oak Ridge, and Brian DeVane and his wife Poliana of Randolph; his brother Edward R. DeVane and his wife Sandra of West Milford, NJ; and his nephew Scott Backle.

The family will receive visitors on Wednesday, July 23, 2014 from 2-4 and 7-9 pm at the Stickle-Soltesz Funeral Home, 187 LaRue Road, Newfoundland, NJ 07435.

Final disposition will be private.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made in Mr. DeVane's name to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 22718, Oklahoma City, OK 73123-1718.

“ My late husband, Harry Anderson, always spoke so highly of his cousin, Donald. They shared many happy memories and experiences. Isn't it hard to believe these 2 cousins would pass on less than a year and a half of each other! They are in god's hands now and looking down on us. May God give peace and comfort to all those that loved Donald and Harry.

“ I have many fond memories of Donnie and Eddie as we were growing up in New Jersey and our families visited each other.

We had lost touch over the years, but he "found" my sister and I and initiated e-mail and facebook friendships

We both were able to speak to him Thursday night.

We will miss him and his friendship
