“ *I met Dot at the Cecil Post 15 about 15 years ago. She was a gracious lady and very dedicated to veteran's services with the Legion.
Although we were casual friends, I always admired her. May she rest in the Hands of the Lord.*

“ What a blessing to have Dorothy as a very close friend to my family. She and mom would talk for hours and I imagine they are catching up right now. After mom passed, Dorothy and Kathy were close friends. Dorothy sure could light up a room. We are all gonna miss her. My deepest condolences to her family.
