TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 2022

FOLLOWING THE FUNERAL HOME VISITATION AT THE RESIDENCE OF:

MR. AND MRS. MASESSA

(FOR FAMILY ONLY)

Doug Corbett, 36, better known as the workout king, died April 22, 2022 at Hackensack Meridian Health Hospital, leaving behind an incredible wife and son (aka Simba), as well as a hell of a lot of Amazon purchases that now we have no clue what to do with. All this said, if you're looking for gym equipment, huge water bottles, or maybe crazy amounts of protein powder Doug was your guy.

Jokes aside (although those were always front and center for Doug), he was an incredible man, unmatched husband, loving father, generous friend and adoring family member to his in-laws. He was born August 22, 1985 in Ridgewood, New Jersey and graduated from Ramapo College with a degree in Law & Society. This began his "no waste" lifestyle which ultimately led to only drinking meals to conserve time (yes, this meant putting sardines, chicken, and eggs in the blender), hating on his mother-in-law's knickknacks, and allowing just enough silverware in the home to feed his growing family... but of course enough workout gear, salt and rice for a small army was allowed.

Following college he launched the infamous Shanty-town, the first of many of his entrepreneurial adventures. Those that knew him well knew Doug was a go-getter, having started his own gym at age 23. His generous nature shown through in these days as he helped others find themselves and learn to be their best selves. It was in this role that he met his mother-in-law Marie, and thus began the match making. Over the years Doug and Lindsay enjoyed trips to Costa Rica, weekends in LBI, and so much more including the raising of their two dogs Rogo and Nala – although if you ask Doug only Nala was ‘his dog’ because Rogo never leaves Lindsay’s side.

Doug and Lindsay were a match made in work-out heaven from the start, and she and their son Colin along with all their friends and family will continue to live life to the fullest in honor of his memory.

The family would like to thank the caring and talented doctors and nurses of the Hackensack Meridian Health Hospital, all of whom dealt with Doug’s shenanigans up to the last minute – including his attempts to buzz his “whole body” while in the hospital bed.

“ Our hearts go out to you, Lindsey, and your entire family, at this most saddest of times. I only met Doug once, but I learned a lot about him from Uncle Joe - how he was a good man, kind, funny, loving life. I was heartbroken to hear of his passing, but know he'll always be watching over you and Collin (as well as making sure the Angels are doing their exercises!). RIP Doug

Our deepest sympathy,

“ This is my best memory of Doug❤️💕 you were the smartest person I know in the fitness world, and I have so much to thank you for over the years. You were simply the best Dougie, no one better than you. I remember driving like a maniac to make your Saturday morning classes at NYSC that was filled to the max, because everyone in that gym loved you. My heart is heavy with this terrible news. My sincerest condolences to Lindsay and your baby boy. You will be missed Dougie. Love, B

“ Lindsay and Colin, there are no words to express the heartbreak that I feel for you. Doug’s energy and smile lit up every room he entered. I knew from the moment that I met Doug that Lindsay had found her true love. Your love story inspires us all. It is a true testament of love and devotion beyond compare and the very meaning “through sickness and in health”. Your beautiful love story has not ended but will forever be present, all you have to do is look into sweet Colin’s eyes. Stay strong my sweet niece and rely on all of us that love you so much. May God bless you with all the comfort that you need and one day bless you with peace that you so deserve. You fought bravely sweet Doug and May you Rest In Peace with no more suffering. You will forever remain in our hearts and Colin will always know how special his Dad is and how much he was loved by all.

“ The first wedding I ever went to was to Lindsay and Doug's. I have always looked up to Lindsay and seeing the way her and Doug loved one another was truly a blessing. I was so happy to see my beautiful cousin marry someone who loved her so much, and so grateful to have Doug in our family. From the moment I met him he treated me with the upmost kindness. I'm so incredibly grateful to have met him, and I'm so incredibly grateful to have watched the way he loved Lindsay and eventually, Colin. I love you guys so much. You are so missed Doug 💖.
