“ Anthony was my cousin . But we grew up as brothers living in the same household. Sharing everything together. From grade school to junior high then high school . Then onto college . When ever I felt down or had a broken heart . I call Ant he just had away with his crazy sense of humor. To take the worst situation and find something funny about it . Him with his sunglasses red pants and Hawaiian shirt. As I recall this I can't help the tears from flowing down my face. I just didn't loose my cousin my life brother but also the best friend I ever had or ever will have . I Love you Ant . And I know that your with your sweet little Aunt Marie and bugging your mom for a smoke. I will see you again and I have no doubt your up there looking for Mariah & Co co.

*A poem I like to Dedicate
To my Brother/ Cousin.*

*We've come along way from no where.
Our family roads were often paved by tears and pain.
But when ever I felt lost you were always there and threw it all I never once heard you complain. .
There were times when I knew you thought the sun would never find us and to be honest sometimes I've felt the same way to.
Now that when your life was finally looked accepted. . Your time of being my big brother God put behind us..
I know in heaven all those dreams of yours will finally be coming true ..
Love and for as long as I live will miss you .
Bobby*
