PRIVATE FINAL DISPOSITION

Liz Mangold, 70, of Jefferson Township, New Jersey, passed away peacefully on May 19, 2022, after a long, brave battle that exhibited her strength and courage.

Born Elizabeth Ruth Vetreno on March 17, 1952, Liz grew up with three older brothers in Wyckoff, New Jersey. She played any sport available to girls at the time and graduated from Ramapo High School in 1970. Liz graduated from Fairleigh Dickinson University in Teaneck, New Jersey, where she studied political science and elementary education. Liz dedicated her professional life to teaching elementary school children in Jefferson. Although most of her students stood taller than her, there was never any doubt who ran the classroom.

Liz is predeceased by her loving parents, Ruth and Salvatore Vetreno, her brother, Peter, and her wonderful mother- and father-in-law, Eileen and Chuck Mangold.

Liz is survived by her two brothers, Paul and his wife Mary, and Tom and his wife Diane; her two sons, Dave and his wife Tammy, and Nick and his wife Renee; numerous nieces and nephews; her book club girls; and friends from every chapter of her life. But the light of her life was her six cherished grandchildren, Gus, Robin, Katelyn, Max, Tyler, and Bella. "Grammy" would have given anything for one more day on the beach searching for shells with those kids.

Liz did not have to face her battle alone. Her high school sweetheart, best friend, confidant, chauffeur, and husband of 47 years, Ed Mangold, was by her side every step of the way. Together they overcame great odds and created memories that will last all of our lifetimes.

The family will receive visitors on Tuesday, May 24, 2022 from 4pm to 8pm with Moments of Reflection and Prayers at 7:30pm at the Stickle-Soltész

Funeral Home, 187 La Rue Road, Newfoundland, New Jersey 07435.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you consider making a donation in Liz's name to Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, 1276 York Avenue, New York, NY 10065: www.mskcc.org.
