“ There are no words to express the sadness one feels when one loses a great man, as my uncle was. Thank you for the last few years we spent at the PNC Arts Center, sharing bagels, and enjoying the oldie concerts. Thank you for driving my aunt the distance so we may share those special times together. And these last few months, we spent much time with phone chats, helping the tante hear, ending always with, I love you both. Forever, my favorite uncle, my mentor and one with a big heart. . . With love always, Rosemarie

“ We are heartbroken. Uncle Ernie was like my second dad. Our families spending every holiday together growing up was a blessing to my dad and uncle Ernie. Both happiest surrounded by family. Pat and I always say there's no better hug and greeting then when we would walk into his house. His love flowed through our bodies when we hugged. My dad in heaven I believe greeted him. They are close brothers together again for eternity.
