“Frances Meistickle was one of the finest women I ever knew. She was caring, giving, loving, generous, thoughtful, honest, and selfless. She lived her life for her family and put everyone else needs above her own, from the time she was a child until the day she passed away. Her memory will always be cherished as a wonderful mother and grandmother who will be extremely missed by those who loved her. May she now watch over us all from Heaven above.
