“ To the first man I ever fell in Love with, my Daddy. Dad you taught me how to walk and talk, how to play the piano, sail a sail boat, and fly a kite. You were the best Tour Guide I have ever known. You could fly through NYC and Washington DC and talk about every building and street and all of it's history. You knew so much about everything. I always admired you for being so intelligent. Growing up we always had so much fun with your brother, sister, Grandma, and all of my amazing cousins, we looked forward to the Holidays and seeing each other. The Banjo and Ukulele you and Uncle Richie jamming out all the time with all of us singing. "5 foot two, Eyes of Blue, Has Anybody Seen My Gal!!!" I will forever miss our lunches at Paul's Place and coffee at McDonald's. We had an amazing childhood in Ringwood on Skyline Lake where we were so involved with so much going on all the time. Thank you for that. I feel so blessed for all that we had, Thank you Daddy. I Love you. Stacey xoxoxo
