Glen T. Greenwood, 62 years, of Oak Ridge, New Jersey, passed away at his residence on Saturday, January 18, 2025.

He was born on June 2, 1962 in Pequannock Twp., New Jersey to Bernice (nee Thomas) and the late Richard E. Greenwood.

Glen graduated from West Milford High School in 1980 and for more than 40 years he was a Service Engineer for Sodick Inc. in Rockaway, New Jersey.

He married Wanna Maakrood in 2013 and resided in Oak Ridge, New Jersey until his passing.

Glen will best be remembered for his love of traveling, his model trains, and owning his classic cars: 1966 GTO and his 1971 Chevrolet Cheyenne Pick-Up.

He was predeceased by his dear father Richard E. Greenwood in 2019.

Glen is survived by his beloved wife Wanna Greenwood; his two loving sons Aaron Grant and his wife Stephanie of Georgia, and Robert Greenwood of North Carolina; his cherished grandchildren Olivia, Julie, and Evelyn; his adored mother Bernice T. Greenwood of Oak Ridge, New Jersey; his loving sister Dale Dunn and her husband David of Jefferson Twp., New Jersey; and his dear niece and nephew Lindsay and Christopher Dunn.

The family will receive visitors on Friday, January 24, 2025 from 3pm to 7pm at the Stickle-Soltesz Funeral Home, 187 La Rue Road, Newfoundland, New Jersey 07435.

The funeral service will take place on Saturday, January 25, 2025 at 11am at Holy Faith Lutheran Church, 104 Paradise Road, Oak Ridge, New Jersey 07438.

The interment will follow at Oak Ridge Cemetery, Oak Ridge, New Jersey 07438.

Memorial donations may be made in Glen's name to: Holy Faith Lutheran Church, 104 Paradise Road, Oak Ridge, New Jersey 07438 or to: The V Foundation for Cancer Research, 14600 Weston Parkway, Cary, North Carolina 27513.

“ Oh how my heart aches at the loss of my dear friend Glen, but...I know he is with his Savior Jesus in heaven. He was such a joy and so funny with all his stories. A big lug that I will truly miss. All hugs and love to his wonderful family--Wanna, Bernice, Dale, and his two great sons--Aaron and Robby.....
