

JAMES FRANCIS SCOGNAMIGLIO

October 4, 1990 - December 21, 2014

James Francis Scognamiglio, 24, of Oak Ridge, NJ, passed away unexpectedly on December 21, 2014 at Chilton Medical Center surrounded by his family.

James was born on October 4, 1990 in Secaucus, New Jersey to Antoinette (Germinario) and James N. Scognamiglio and was raised in Palisades Park, NJ until his family moved to Oak Ridge, NJ in 2005.

He attended Jefferson Township High School and County College of Morris briefly. James enjoyed the outdoors and took quickly to working in landscaping and construction. He was a strong and extremely hardworking young man who, during the summer of 2014, worked two jobs in order to meet his obligations. He was always prompt at his job sites and ready and more than willing to complete a rewarding days' work.

Known as James to those who loved him, he was an extremely talented self-taught musician who mastered guitar and drums and enjoyed playing his guitar with a passion.

James will best be remembered for fishing with his father, playing guitar, and working out with weights to extremely loud rock music. James was a lifelong NY Giants fan and through his father's affiliation with the team, had the opportunity to meet many players and coaches during the 1990's. He was a kind and attentive son, who had a huge heart and endless love for his family and friends. He was quick to forgiveness and always went out of his way to assist his friends in any way possible.

He was pre-deceased by his grandparents, Angela and Diego Germinario of Palisades Park, NJ, and James J. Scognamiglio of Leonia, NJ.

James is survived by his adoring parents, Antoinette and Jim; his brothers Sean Thomas, 20, and Christopher Philip, 19; his loving uncle and aunt, Louis T. Germinario and Violet Germinario; his cousins Stephanie and Victoria of Kingsport, TN; his devoted grandmother, Jayne Scognamiglio and aunt, Sharon Scognamiglio Dudley of Buffalo, Wyoming. He is also surrounded by the love of his many cousins, who also live in New Jersey.

The family will receive visitors on Saturday, December 27, from 2pm to 6pm at the Stickle-Soltész Funeral Home, 187 LaRue Road, Newfoundland, NJ 07435, followed by services at 6pm.

“ A couple of Thursdays ago James stopped at our house to hitch a ride with some folks. I jumped out of the car and as he got in I stopped and gave him a good long hug. I know he's not super comfortable with hugs but I have that to cherish now. I love you James and I know that it was never your intention to cause others pain. You are free. Please know you are loved by many.
Love to you always,
Mrs Carroll

“ Antoinette and family - wishing you strength, peace and love during this difficult time.

An adorable memory I have of him during this time of year is when he was about 5 years old and came to visit us at my sister's house. He saw a book he liked, his eyes got huge and had this big, beautiful smile of his face. I can still hear him saying with excitement "Look Mommy...Holly the Who." He grabbed the book, sat down and read. He was so darned cute!
