“ Janice would always take us on trips, we went to the 1964 World's Fair in New York. Sharon Penner, Jimmy Eakin, Sally.

“ Sally - Janice and I took a trip to Europe and when we were in Paris, we were at the Arc de Triomphe, it was a circle of cars and standing there, I was trying to figure out how we we're going to get across. So I just stepped out and Janice was behind me and we just took one car at a time and they were shouting at us Sherry you crazy. , but we made it to the other side. Then I was told there's a tunnel underneath this road and we could have walk through the tunnel. All I know Janice says wait till I get to the tour guide, because he never told us. The trip was great, had a great time ,will never forget it

“ *Janice always had a pleasant smile as well as an inquisitive mind. Anytime we would meet at the 11 am mass Janice would say "I have a question for you." and we would debate the answer. You will be missed.
May Jesus hold you in his loving Arms,
Deacon Jim*

It was a pleasure and a blessing to serve as Eucharistic Minister with Janice. She was always ready to help out. I loved her sense of humor.

I think it was the Holy Spirit who worked through Janice to recruit me to become a Eucharistic Minister. God bless her soul.
