Jerry was loved for his beautiful spirit, his generosity, his openness about his feelings, his sensitivity and caring and his strength and compassion. You could count on his being totally himself. He was always forthright and honest and was willing to be there when people needed him. A friend texted me: "He was just a big mush - wasn't he? I'm going to miss his fabulous hugs."

His passing is a tragic loss for all of us. His parting word was always "Later," for he meant to see us again! I miss him so much!

Jerry was a vibrant spirit who affected everyone he met. We all admired him for his devotion, his generosity, his sensitivity, his openness about his feelings, his caring, his strength and compassion. We could always count on his being totally himself. He was forthright and honest and was willing to be there when people needed him even when his COPD was an issue. A friend texted me, "He was just a big mush - wasn't he? I'm going to miss his fabulous hugs." His passing is a tragic loss for all of us. And so in Jerry Lee's word as we left one another "LATER" for we are meant to see each other again. Until then . . . I miss you very much!
