“ Words can not express our deepest sympathies for your loss. We meet John through his sister and brother in law Barbara and Ian. Barbara, Ian and the Kane's always made us feel like part of the family. Joe and John had a lot in common including NASCAR and both being mechanics but for rival companies which they always joked about. John will really be missed. Again, we are so sad for your loss.

“ When people ask me about John I describe him very simply he was a very good uncle to my children, he was my brother in law but more importantly he was my friend and a brother I never had but more important a good man. Over years he and I had a relationship where we didn't need to say much to one another but we both knew we were there for each other. He and my late wife Rose where good friends for a long time she introduced us together she tell me one thing John was very quiet person I found that to be one of his strongest points. John and I lived next each other for over 10 years and when he moved away I missed John very much, I will miss his dry sense of humor most people didn't get it" his joke`s sometimes would make people tilt their heads like a dog who was curious and I would just sit back and laugh. I enjoyed his intense love for NASCAR which he introduced me to going to Nazareth race track with him a few years later we actually took my father to his very first car race and need to fill John was a very good man and wishes me to send his condolences as well is 78 years old he wishes he could come back from Florida to pay his respects. John was a person that was easy-going friendly at least that's how I saw him and how I always remember him. To Nicole and Stephanie who I miss very much I know how hard this is for you right now as well when we lost Rose. I can only tell you that all the good memories will carry you and strengthen you as the two of you grow into wonderful woman. To the Kane family I offer my humble and heartfelt sympathies for your loss. Sincerely John Liggio

I am so sadden by John' s passing. I was a co-worker of John's in Mt. Olive, although I worked in an office. He was such a nice guy; always willing to help. Many conversations we had, he shared his love of his children and now and then a joke. I am so sorry I cannot say goodbye to you, John, in person. You and your family are in my prayers. I will always remember you. The world has lost a great guy. he will be missed.
