“ I always considered Johnny as the "Gentle Giant". From our earliest years he was always the one who towered over everyone else. In our crazy days we would drive up to Greenwood Lake in the old Buick that was fast and like riding on a cloud. We would go to the school dances in Pompton Plains where we were considered the outlaws from Haskell. He met Joanne, the love of his life and was with her forever. As a great friend and a fellow Veteran, Johnny was the best!! RIP old buddy and my best to Joanne and your family.

I have a lot of memories of getting in trouble with Johnny and Larry. I still have a picture of the three of us at around 4 years old sitting out behind our houses playing. Good friends, Our souls are inextricably joined for all eternity. RIP Johnny, and here we thought old age was a hundred.
