“ John was my much loved and respected son in law. I loved and respected him for his kindness , wisdom and total devotion to his family. All of these things describe John but most important he was a wonderful husband and father. He made my daughter , Jayne, happy and I loved him most of all for that alone.

“ John was the most selfless person I know. Always thinking of others before himself. He was kind and patient. A Yankees fan who never rubbed it in with his Red Sox fan brother-in-law. Strike that. Brother. He was my brother. We should all be more like John.
