“ John was a patient, funny and kindly host to Richard, Judy’s cousin, and his wife Jennifer from Scotland in 1998, which was the first family reunion. John’s enthusiasm knew no bounds in making us feel at home immediately with both of them. John’s patience with both of us was phenomenal in teaching the wherefores of American driving, taking each of us out independently with him in our hired enormous American car and making many mistakes along the way, but always corrected with kindness and we often reminisce about that trip. We are so thankful to God that our paths crossed ...John was so special and praying that John would now rest in peace.

“ When you lived in the family of Jack and Helen Wynne, you had to be on your toes. They took the three kids, Jean, John, and Susan, everywhere. But you couldn't waste time. You had to follow Dad's schedule. If it was ten o'clock on Tuesday, and you were in Belgium, you needed to be in Brussels. John was great on these trips. He was normally the first in line for the train...and the ice cream cone. I will miss him. He had many great qualities. Love, Aunt Susan
