“ Not sure I understand what God was thinking. I can never make sense of this. I had many years of great times with Kathy. We seemed to always know when to pick each other up. We shared the gift of laughter and loved girls night with ended in the PJ party. We loved to see who would look the worst in the morning. Many years we spent together coming into our own, finding our new lives and loved ones, remaining happy. My only regret is that we did not stay close and continue the laughter. I can't go back, but I can go forward and keep her family and friends close in my heart, wishing all my deepest sympathy. Debra Vogel Mims

“Kathy was the only one I ever let me call me by my "real first name", only because of the way her eyes twinkled and the way she tried to twist her mouth when she would say it, we would both laugh every time she lovingly call me "Bi otch". I have many fond memories of Kathy, yet the one that repeats is that she has a pure, giving, loving heart as she shared with all of us in her devotion to the Elks, VFW, and individual charities she was involved with. Our life's loss is most certainly Heaven's gain. Rest in the most sweetest of peace my friend. My heartfelt condolences are forever with Dave and his family. Erica & Joe, Kathy will be present at the birth of your daughter, even death won't be able to stop her, as in every aspect of your lives, she'll be there, look deeply into her children's, your children's, and David's eyes, you might just catch a glimpse of Kathy. May peace find it's way back to all of you. Love, Loretta
