

LAWRENCE A. BAKELAR

May 31, 1927 - March 25, 2020

Lawrence A. Bakelar, 92 years old, of Montague, NJ., passed away at his home on Wednesday, March 25, 2020.

Born on May 31, 1927 in Paterson, NJ to Henrietta (nee Grinstra) and Walter Edward Bakelar.

He proudly served in the US Army from 1950 to 1956 during the Korean War. Lawrence married Jeanne (nee Parke) in 1971.

He started his own paper company in 1947, the Sparta Tympan Paper Company.

In his spare time he enjoyed spending time on his boat.

Lawrence was predeceased by his parents, his sister Dorothy Tice and his brother Walter Bakelar.

He is survived by his wife Jeanne of Montague, NJ., his daughter Sandra Jeanne Revisky and her husband Jason; and his sons Bradley and Tracey Bakelar, both of Utah; his grandchildren Fletcher, Soren, and Harper Keel Revisky; his niece Barbara Burns of Florida, and his nephew Douglas Tice of Iowa, and Jack Tice of New Jersey.

The final disposition will be private.

Log onto www.sticklesolteszfuneralhome.com tribute wall to personally post your condolences, memories, photos, and videos.

Tribute Wall

“ Larry's second son, William Tracey gave him 5 grandchildren; Lawrence Adam, Jeremy Winston, Chance William, Jenica Nicole and Joshua Richard. Along with 11 great grandchildren.

Tracey Bakelar - April 02, 2020 at 01:20 PM

DT

“ I will always remember my Uncle Larry and feel fortunate to have known him. The world has lost someone very special. I know Jeanne and Sandy are especially aware of this. I remember the many cars Larry owned over the years including his Hudson Hornet, Chrysler Imperial, and Harley Davidson motorcycles. I also have memories of all the times I spent at his house in Sparta Lake when I was a kid. I will always cherish the memories I was able to have with my Uncle Larry. I love and miss him dearly.

Doug Tice - March 27, 2020 at 07:42 PM