Leigh M. Weiss, 66 years of age, of West Milford, New Jersey, passed away on Saturday, December 26, 2020.

He was born on December 27, 1953 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Clara (nee Schaffer) and the late Daniel Weiss.

Leigh married Therese (nee Bergen) in 2006 and resided in West Milford, New Jersey.

Leigh graduated from Livingston High School and attended William Paterson College for 2 years. He became an EMT in 1975, an American Heart Association CPR Instructor in 1980, a Certified Phlebotomist and EKG Technician in 1985, a Pharmacy Technician in 1990, and a Certified Assisted Living Administrator (CALA) in 2005.

From 1982 to 1992, Leigh owned and operated Weiss Printers, a quick print shop, in Totowa, NJ.

Leigh has worked as an EMT for the New Jersey Sports & Exposition Authority in both part-time and full-time capacity from June 1992 to March 2020. He worked many events at the racetrack, and the Brendan Byrne, Continental, and Izod Arenas, as well as Giant Stadium and MetLife Stadium, working concerts, and football, soccer, basketball and hockey games.

He was a part-time EMT at Adamo Medical / Lifestar Response and was promoted to training coordinator teaching CPR to staff members of the nursing home services.

Leigh was the Director of Marketing / Customer Services at Pulse Medical Transportation, Inc., and was responsible for the marketing and customer service for over 28 nursing homes and 5 major hospital accounts along with training staff and conducted CPR instruction for nursing home staff.

Leigh started his own company, CPR Instruction by Lee teaching CPR to the nursing home industry.

Leigh served on the Livingston First Aid Squad from 1975-1995 and was elected President and Captain.

“ I was stunned to read about Leigh's passing. I just spoke with him on 12/22! He was most optimistic for his future kidney surgery and bone marrow transplant. Leigh and I go back many years, Chestnut Hill Convalescent Center, Pulse. I always could depend on him. I subsequently went on to Essex, Bergen County, he always was at the meetings for the nursing home administrators. I cannot believe he is gone.

Theresa, I don't know you, but I can tell you how much he loved you. He spoke about you all the time to me. He used to say, hey Kath, I finally got what you have (I've been married 48 years, and yes he never met my husband either). My thoughts and prayers are with you all!

Prayers, love and hugs, Kathy Manger
