“ I remember going to Scranton with Ricky and Jodie and learning to make sauce with Maa and her mom and sister Auntie it was so much fun and at the same time serious sauce making. Another favorite memory was going to the white rock house and visiting Jodies mom and dad and always feeling welcomed. That was all her mom. Everyone called her Maa because she always wanted to take care of you , she was a greater hugger and her warmth just shined through. May her memories always be present in your heart.
