“ Anyone who knew Marge knew she was an enjoyable piece of work. My Family and I got to know Marge and George from walking around Pulaski Drive as well as from St. Thomas. Marge would call with little tasks she had some issues with. One of her 911 calls was that she locked herself out of her house. Well as it was she had also locked and closed all the windows in the house. After looking around Marge and I saw that her second story bedroom window was a little bit open. With an extension ladder I was able to climb through her bedroom window and re-open the house. When I came down Marge said to me .. " Well one more thing is off my bucket list...I always wanted to have a young man climb through my bedroom window ! " Marge will be missed by many. May she rest in peace!
