“ So many good family memories 🌸 Picnics and holidays 🌸 family times even if we were not officially family. Mark, you were always so smart and kind. You loved trains and history and I'm so glad you had your railroad job. Thank you for keeping us up to date on news from home with pictures and newspaper clippings of our homes in Ringwood and West Milford. Your Mom was so precious and special to me. Your Dad was always so much fun. For our notes and cards I'm thankful we kept in touch when we were able 🌸 I will see you again when we gather at our Savior's feet 🌸

“ Our most deepest condolences to a dear cousin. Since I retired my wife and I moved to Virginia and had little contact with mark. We were devastated to find out today about marks passing. We love you mark and know you'll now be united with your mom and dad.

“ Even though we weren't blood relatives, Mark was our "cousin" because his Dad, Gene, and my Dad, Ray, were best friends forever. We all grew up together and had many family get togethers whether it was at Mark's house or ours. That was a time when you called the adults "Aunt or Uncle". Mark stayed in touch with us and would send us info on home we were missing, Ringwood and West Milford, because he knew we were still such a part of the area. He will be missed and I know he really loved his work at the railroad, he was into trains since he was little. I didn't know he was a volunteer at the museum. He will be missed. I had a great visit with him about 5 years ago, he and his Dad and Carol sat and talked for hours, reminiscing about the good old days. Lot's of memories, Carol, we send our love and to Lyn and Brad and family, too! ❤️ Love you all! 🥰
