“Mary had such great energy! She connected with people, I know she did that for me! They say you may forget what people say and do but not how they make you feel. With Mary I felt friendship!”

“Mary and I met through Michael when he worked with her during an election and later I did as well. We shared a love of poetry, I facilitate Circle of Voices, first in WM and now in Warwick and Mary was very scholarly as she brought her notebooks and filled them with that month's discussion, always adding keen insight and research to the group. We sometimes had adventures, I would drive her and her farm helper out to pick up supplies or have lunch. She had a huge appetite for all things, loved hearing about my travels, loved Michael's (husband) cooking and often I would run over new recipes for her to try. She said Mike had the "gift of the spoon." Her last words to me (when she no longer attended poetry meetings because of Covid) and I would drop little presents, or cookies/baked goods, a sandwich was "you are so good to me, thank you so much for keeping me in the poetry loop" and so I hope she is somewhere composing her Haiku with her brave and keen observations of all living things. OH she loved animals and rescued so many of them, and my dad was a visitor to her farm, tried to give her advice about plants and animals. Laurie and Michael Byro”
