“ Maybe it's in the name, but Mary gave and gave throughout her life - to her students, colleagues, friends and loving family. She was always there with an extended hand, warm smile and quirky remarks. I feel blessed to call her my friend and colleague and she made all feel like family. I have so many memories of our good times together. Sharing my birthday celebration with Mary and others.

May the good Lord watch over all of you at this difficult time. We lost an Angel here on earth, and know that she's in a better place. While we will miss her presence, Mary will still be in our hearts. I am heartbroken that she's been taken so soon..

Larry, Lara, Jen, Jennifer, Matt, Larry and Agnes, and to her dear grandbabies, Luke, Maggie and Samantha....you have been so blessed and she will continue to watch over all of you, she'll be just a whisper away..

Love, Kathy

Will miss seeing Mary at the 7:30am Mass on Sunday mornings. We always took a moment to stop and chat about our grandchildren. I will certainly miss those exchanges. God Bless Mary and her family. Her spirit will always be with me at that 7:30 mass.
