“ My best memory of Mike is when the guys were doing a coin toss at the oak ridge road jughandle. He was holding lil Jeffrey who was maybe 3 or 4 years old at the time. I had to swing around the u turn to pick up my son, since he wanted to help Daddy and the guys at the firehouse. As I pulled around, I asked Mike to put Jeffrey in the car seat, but he refused saying he wanted to keep the "little guy" with him and told me to come back later for him, that he was kidnapping him for a little while longer.
Rest in peace Mr. Cadou and thanks for always being so kind to Jeffrey and making him feel like a part of the crew.

“ When I think of Mike, I think of children! He was always with the kids! He loved to play with them outside, and they loved him. I know my Catherine did! He is probably, in that better place, making a child laugh right now!
My thoughts and prayers are with you guys
Love, Ginger

“ It was about 15 years ago I gave Mike the nickname Mr Clean. WMFD CO2 covered one of our CO 6 calls while we were at another fire. When I got on scene there was Mike with his bald head and wearing nice clean white bunker gear. He looked jut like Mr Clean in the commercials. I had many good laughs with Mike and fun times in Wildwood. Mike I will miss our Facebook chats talking about France and French recipes. Rest in Peace my friend. Until we meet again.

“ Michael always told his Sears customers, "You listen to me." He wanted to educate his customers about the care and maintenance of their appliances. We technicians always called Mike "Macgiver" because he could make makeshift tools to fix anything. He was quite a man. We will all miss him.
