“ Nereida had a wonderful soul and spirit. She would do anything for anyone and all who knew her loved her. One of my fondest memories was the first time I met her. She was the first person I hired when I was a Manager for our Department. She came off the Elevator and I knew from that moment that she was a great person. We interviewed Nereida and was hired on the spot. Through the years we were Friends not just work acquaintances. She will be missed and never forgotten. RIP

“ *What a caring, loving ,kind person. I have truly been blessed having the pleasure of growing up around her and family. There are so many memories of which I have.
One of my favorite ones is: when she read at my wedding she had thought she messed it up and was so embarrassed. I assured her she did the best ever and how genuine she always was.
I will miss her always, but she will always have a special place in my heart forever.
My deepest sympathies,
