“ I worked with Pam at Bayer she was an awesome coworker and friend. Every other week she would always make an appointment for us to go get a manipeti @ lunchtime. She was a fighter. Thanking God for putting her in my life. Going to miss you my friend!

“ December 2, 2022

I admired Pam even when I was a little girl some 70 years ago. She was the cousin with a ready smile, the one who paid attention to me at family functions when grownup attentions seemed to be focused on my adorable little brother. She was the one who always seemed to be surrounded by friends with matching sweater sets or cheering pompoms. Her kindness and popularity were something I aspired to. I also remember thinking of how romantic it was when she and Bill bucked all advice and warnings from the adults and got married young and started a family right away. Pam always knew what was important to her – Bill, her partner always by her side for life. Her four children- Billy, Sue, Tommy, and Cathy. Her grandchildren - the lights of her life. And her friendships and extended family. She forever made them the priority in her life and loved and nurtured them.

Now as a grandparent of small children myself, Pam remains a role model to me of what a good wife, a great parent, an amazing involved grandparent should be. The hole in everyone's heart is HUGE, and it will take time for it to be filled with the wonderful memories she created for us all.

Pam, the world was such a better place with you in it. It will remain better because of your influence on others. We will all miss you so much.

*Sent with love,
Louise (Thomas) Duda*
