

PATRICIA ANN GALGANO

October 23, 1940 - April 24, 2018

Patricia Ann (Sweeny) Galgano

Survived by her five children, Denise DeTitta, husband Robert, Deborah Iversen, husband Erik, John Galgano, Louis Galgano and Dania Gleeson, husband Robert. Her grandchildren, Jade Beebe, Michael Galgano, Grace DeTitta, Devin Kovach, Jessica Kovach, Joseph Galgano, RJ Gleeson and Brian Gleeson. Her great grandchild Breea Marie.

Her siblings MaryAnn Keenan, Jack Sweeny, wife Gale, Roger Sweeny, wife Robyn, Jeanne Etter. Her many nieces, and nephews, counting up to more than 50 people.

She refused attention, therefore no obituary. She refused attention, therefore no big deal for her passing. She was the strongest and most fearless woman alive, and in her life after, we children still fear her convictions and believe we need to respect and honor her wishes. Therefore, no flowers, no sadness, and no big goodbyes. To each his own, mourn her they way you need, say good bye to her the way she will know, and keep her in your heart the way you always have.

Pat will be pissed if you cry, attempt to be sad over her loss, or want to do anything that would bring attention to her now. What will be, will be, as she has always said, and know she is at peace, with all of the wonderful people who have already left us, most likely laughing, playing golf, smiling down on all of us and some day we will join her again.

“ Pat and I worked together for many years,from Snow Bowl Ski Area to Vernon Valley Great Gorge. A dear friend to me. We travelled many roads together,including actual snow and ice,playing the radio and Pat smoking and probably praying. I only have happy memories of our time together.
