

PAUL PAICER

October 7, 1928 - August 10, 2013

Paul F. Paicer, 84, of Newfoundland, passed away on Saturday, August 10, 2013.

He was born in Newark, NJ to Catherine (nee Metkus) and Frank Paicer. Mr. Paicer proudly served in the US Marine Corps during the Korean War. He was a survivor of the Chosin Reservoir Campaign, Fox Company.

Mr. Paicer was self employed as a carpenter.

He was a parishioner for many years at St. Joseph RC Church in West Milford.

Mr. Paicer will best be remembered for his love of gardening, American History, and especially for adoring his grandchildren.

Mr. Paicer was predeceased by his beloved son Kevin Paicer and his dear brothers Leonard and George Paicer.

He is survived by his beloved wife Mary (nee Wise) of Newfoundland, his dear sons Terence Paicer and his wife Joanne of Bangor, PA, John Paicer of Newfoundland, his loving daughter Mary C. Andryshak and her husband Edmund of Toms River, NJ, and his dear son Thomas Paicer and his wife Kym, and his loving daughter in law Melissa Paicer of Newfoundland.

Mr. Paicer also leaves behind his cherished grandchildren Heather, Courtney, Katelyn, and Paul Paicer, Tara and Colleen Andryshak, Joseph and Joshua Paicer, and Lauren McTigue, as well as his brother Peter Paicer of Ohio, and several nieces and one nephew.

On line condolences: www.sticklesolteszfuneralhome.com