“ You can never forget a man like Paul. He was a great firefighter, a great teacher, and I'm proud to say a great friend. The memories camping trips, fire calls, and the many weekends we all just sat around are moments I'll always cherish.
A quick story about Paul. We had a basement fire on Carib Trail. The first crew's bottles had gotten low, and Paul backed me up on the line as the next crew in. A few feet in, I got caught on some low hanging wires. Paul said "Hold on" and within seconds he cut the wires and freed my tank and told me to keep going. Afterwards, I thanked him and in his blunt Paul Schaller way he smiled and said, "Pudge, this is why we never work alone."
Rest in peace, Paul.

“ There are no words I can offer to make you and your family better about this loss. I think that God must have had big plans for Paul that required Him calling him home so soon. May time and remembrance heal the pain this loss is causing.
