

PHILLIP L. CASSELL

March 14, 1946 - November 9, 2021

MEMORIAL SERVICE:
TO BE ANNOUNCED AT A LATER DATE

Phillip L. Cassell, 75 years of age, of Newton, New Jersey, passed away peacefully with his family at his side on Tuesday, November 9, 2021.

He was born on March 14, 1946 in Pulaski, Virginia to the late Emma Mae (nee Hunt) and Wilmer "Leon" Cassell.

Phillip married Ann Epstein in 1971 and resided in Sparta, New Jersey where they raised their daughters.

He was the owner and president of Cassell's Appraisal Service in Sparta, New Jersey until his retirement.

In his spare time, Phillip enjoyed fly fishing, classic cars, especially his 1981 Ford Pickup, restoring motorcycles; spending time with his family vacationing in the Florida Keys, scuba diving, and the love he shared with his dogs.

He was predeceased by his mother Emma Mae Hunt in 2005 and his father Leon Cassell in 1968.

Phillip is survived by his beloved wife Ann; his loving daughters Stacy Clarkson and her husband Scott of Oak Ridge, New Jersey, and Kelly Heritage and her husband Devin of Annapolis, Maryland; his cherished grandchildren Ryan, Colby, Sam, and Lucy; his dear sisters Connie Gliedt and Ann Trautmann, as well as several nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will take place at a date to be announced in the future.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made in Phillip's name to Karen Ann Quinlan Memorial Foundation, 99 Sparta Avenue, Newton, New Jersey 07860.

“ I wish to extend my deepest sympathies to the entire Cassell family. Phil was a great husband and father and friend. I met Phil back in 1987 when he introduced me to fly fishing I fished with Phil throughout much of the US and Canada. It gives me great comfort to know his memory will live on as I now have the pleasure of fishing with his grandson. You will be missed.
