“ Ralph was always there for me, I will never forget when he drove me to Florida so that I could visit my mom. We had so much fun and laughing along the way. We almost ran out of gas in Washington, DC. He was by side many of nights talking about the bible and dying. Not only was he a good brother in law he was a wonderful brother to me. I will miss him dearly, until we meet again.

Love you bro!

“ Mr. Turre,

Thank you deeply w accepting me into your family and your heart. With your rules that we must laugh, cry, and learn in life, thank you for teaching me such valuable skills.

Fishing with you was never about fishing, but the lesson of laughing at what fishes must be laughing at us for. You introduced me to the sting "It is what it is", and that life is where ever we are abd what we are doing.

“ Ralph, Whether holding court on the 10th floor or down in the laundry you always had a quick wit and great sense of humor. Your opinion of people, especially administrators were always spot on. When I think of U.C.J. and the good times, you will always be at the top of the list of my great memories. Miss you and your laughter....Rest in peace my friend Lenny

“ Ralph, I will miss you my buddy. Remember all the hunting trips (where we didn't kill anything, but laughed a lot). You helped make our career in Corrections bearable with your sense of humor. Rest in peace my friend. I will never forget you.
