“ I knew Dick Greenwood my whole life. He was neighbor on Rt #23 in Oak Ridge and from 1960 on up the street from our house in Farm Crest Acres, Oak Ridge. His mother, Alice Greenwood was my piano teacher in the 1940's. I remember his picture in uniform next to her piano when I went for lessons. I remember he told his mother to care for his 2 guinnie (sic) pigs while he was at war. She did, and on his return found a cage with many more. I remember hearing that he was on his 22nd sortie over Germany in his fighter plane when he noticed a flat tire on the plane. He was 2nd in the lineup. His plane was pulled. The tire was replaced and his plane was put last in line. The plane in his previous #2 spot was shot down by the Nazis.

We will miss him.
