“ Bobby Sr. and his brother Jack (my husband) will now meet again (I can just see their smiling faces!) We all shared such similar experiences (growing up) in Italian Harlem. His mom owned a variety/candy store on 113th Street, just 2 buildings from Our Lady Queen of Angels Catholic Church.

Bobby loved jazz, and loved to sing as well, he had a darn good voice! he knew almost all of the old classic songs. Thanks to his generosity, he mailed us vintage photographs of our ancestors, as well as the ones he had copied of when we were young.

I am so happy he was in our lives, and to have had the chance to talk to him by phone, rehashing old times and stories. God Bless him always.

Bobby, until we meet again, your sister-in-law Bette Nobile.

I was his doll face.. and his Betty boop. Will always be. Love you so much... I am so beyond grateful you got to meet your great grandson.. he loves you even more than he knew- especially since you fed him ice cream at 4 months old.
