Robert Bryan Wundrack

"Robbie"

August 21, 1976 - September 10, 2017

Son of Ulrike Wundrack (nee; Burckhardt) and the late Robert Joseph Wundrack

Robbie passed unexpectedly from natural causes while assisting in the relief efforts of Hurricane Irma in Florida.

Born in Pompton Plains, NJ , Robbie was a lifelong resident of West Milford. He always had a love of the outdoors and “Tonka Toys” so upon graduation from West Milford High School in 1995 he followed his passion working with heavy equipment and eventually opening W&W Contracting and Excavating in 2001. Always looking to provide the best for his family, he chose to follow another path and joined JBL Electric as a fleet and heavy equipment mechanic in 2016.

Robbie’s first love was always his family. His “girls” as he called them, wife Jodi and daughters Jasmine and Brianna were his pride and joy. Best times were always with family and friends, bonfires and BBQ’s, watching the Giants or Nascar, playing horseshoes at the Elks, riding quads and dirtbikes, hunting and target practicing with friends and daughters Jasmine and Brianna, cheering Brianna and Jasmine on at soccer or basketball and camping “upstate” and recently a new found joy watching The World of Outlaws Sprint car racing Robbie was always ready to lend a hand whether family, friend or stranger. He and his brother Mark cleared roads of trees and debris in the aftermath of Sandy and numerous other storms. He volunteered at the West Milford Elks Lodge 2236- especially enjoying cooking for the game dinners long before becoming an official member, helped with construction projects outside of the business, strongly believing in the barter system between friends and sometimes strangers!

Robbie had a strong love for his country and the meaning of freedom. He was a firm believer in morals, honesty and doing the “right” thing. While everyone close to him could attest to his strong beliefs, they also knew his compassionate side, gift of gab and wonderful smile.

Beloved husband of Jodi, (nee Hochstadter) and cherished father of Jasmine and Brianna. Dearly loved son of Ulrike (nee Burckhardt) Wundrack Lippner and step father Daniel Lippner and beloved "big" brother to Mark Wundrack, he will leave an irreplaceable void.

Robbie will be greatly missed by parent in-laws, Gail and William Hochstadter, sisters in law and brothers in law, Stacy and Brian Eckhardt and Randi and Michael Slamiak. His adoring nieces, Brooke and Mikayla Slamiak and nephew Cody Eckhardt.

Robert was pre-deceased by his father, Robert Joseph Wundrack in 1989 and grandparents, "Opa" Wendelin Burckhardt, 2004 and grandmother, "Oma" Dorothea Burckhardt, 1994.

“ There were so many great times I can remember having with Rob.
Always smiling and having a good time.
He was like a big brother to all of us.
He was a great man and wonderful person.
Though I have not seen him in many years he will always live on in your heart.
Much love goes out to the Wundrack family in this hard time.
With love and condolences

“ Think the first time I met Robbie he was racing (crashed I believe) in the sandpit. Through all the years of knowing him since, never saw him without a smile and a good word. A gentleman.

“ *It is with such a heavy heart we say goodbye to such a special, beautiful man. We admired Robbie for his open warmth, his deep love for his girls, nieces and nephew, his dedication to family and friends and passion for life. He loved with his whole heart and made sure you knew it; always supportive when someone was in need. It is an honor to have been part of his life and will remember that smile every time we think of him.
