“ Thank you for being here in mind or person through this difficult time. My mom was my best friend and to express how much she meant to me is impossible at this time. I just can't quality the importance she had in my life. I feel honored and privileged to have been her daughter. I will miss her forever and am not sure how I will manage to go through the next few days. I want to thank everyone before the wake for calling, thinking of me, sending flowers or coming to see her and giving your respects in the next few days. I am so overwhelmed with grief at this time. I know you are there if I cannot speak with you during this time and thank you from the bottom of my heart. Renee
