“ Dear Ruthie,

I will always remember your straight-forwardness and your love of Tommy and your family. You loved watching the Rangers, gardening and decorating pumpkins on the Fearon family farm. You hated cold weather and the snow but had a big heart and was always willing to listen to everyone's problem. You always made me laugh. Rest in peace, Ruthie.

“ To Ruthie Lloyd’s family, I send my most heartfelt thoughts to all of you. Your loss is much greater than any words of comfort I have to offer, but know that Ruthie was a treasure. I had the pleasure of working with her at Ernst & Young for around 25 years. She was always ready to do what needed to be done and came to our rescue more times than I can recall. Her bright smile was always a sweet greeting. Who could forgot the day she decided to cut her long hair and didn’t she look just as adorable as ever! May God bless, comfort and encourage you all as you travel through this very sad time.
With sympathy,
Lois Brower
