“ We grew up together living on the same quaint street Garden Court South in the Belmont Gardens section of Garfield. Fond feelings surface as memories of Ruth arise from those early days of childhood freindships. She had her heart with her two grandchildren evidenced by her captivating smile when she was in their presence. Surely they will be comforted to know in years to come how much they were loved by Ruth. Our sincere condolences to the family wishing them peace and comfort as they grieve in the embrace of the Holy Spirit, the great comforter. Our Love and prayers,
